

CFJCC

NOV 28 2001

AT SEATTLE
CLERK U.S. DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
BY

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

Veryl-Edward, ex rel.
VERYE E. KNOWLES

Secured Party / Plaintiff

v.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

Respondant

Case No. CR 97-051 G

CONDITIONAL ACCEPTANCE FOR VALUE

CR 97-00051 #00000571

For the record and the court shall take judicial notice.
Without granting jurisdiction and without prejudice UCC § 1-207.

I, Veryl-Edward, sui juris, of The Knowles clan, being a holder-in-due-course relative to the name VERYL

571

E. KNOWLES, a derivative of the name KNOWLES, VERYL E., alleged to be a Defendant in the above cited case.

This Plaintiff states that on October 22, 2001, I received a document dated October 9, 2001 entitled GOVERNMENT'S OPPOSITION TO DEFENDANT'S PETITION FOR RELIEF.

I, Veryl-Edward, sui juris do accept the offer of Opposition to Defendant's Petition for Relief upon documentary proof that the prosecuting attorney CARL BLACKSTONE has lawful delegated authority to initiate and prosecute a criminal case against an inhabitant of one of the several states of the union, not a citizen of the